Continue

Vietnam war webquest answer key quizlet

Vietnam war webquest. Vietnam war webquest answer key. Vietnam war answer key. Ww2 webquest answer key. Vietnam war webquest answers. Vietnam war webquest answer key pdf.

To access your WebQuest, simply click on one of the available links. You'll find stories about the Vietnam War as well as links to listen to them. However, it seems like you might be experiencing some issues with our website. Sometimes, this can happen when: * Your browser is working at an incredible speed. * Cookies are disabled in your web browser. * A third-party plugin, such as Ghostery or NoScript, is preventing JavaScript from running. If you're having trouble accessing the content, please ensure that cookies and JavaScript are enabled. You can find more information about this issue in our support article. You will be working on this WebQuest independently. You have two options for submitting your work: you can complete it as a Google Doc and share it with me or use Word and email it to me as an attachment. Part 1 To answer the following questions, click HERE for additional information. * What led to Vietnam being split into two parts? * Why did the US become involved in the conflict? * Who was Ho Chi Minh and what role did he play? * Who were the Vietcong? Part 2 For more detailed information about the war, visit the American Experience - Vietnam Online website. Select the relevant years to find answers to the following questions: 1. What happened as a result of the Battle of Dienbien phu in 1954? 2. What decision was made at the Geneva Convention in 1954? 3. Who became President of the Republic of Vietnam in 1955? 4. What was the purpose of the Ho Chi Minh Trail in 1959? 5. What new military group did JFK start in 1961? 6. What was Agent Orange used for in 1962? 7. How did Buddhist Monks protest Diem's religious intolerance in 1963? 8. What happened in the Gulf of Tonkin in 1964 that brought the US into the war? 9. What else occurred in 1964? 1. The Gulf of Tonkin Resolution enabled President Johnson to take actions, but it undermined the system of checks and balances by bypassing Congressional oversight. 10. Teach-ins in 1965 aimed to educate students about the Vietnam War and its implications, fostering critical thinking and anti-war sentiments among young people. 11. CORES complained that the draft was unfair, as it allowed exemptions for some groups while others were forced to serve, sparking concerns about inequality and social justice. 12. Martin Luther King Jr. expressed strong opposition to the Vietnam War, viewing it as an unjust conflict that diverted resources from domestic issues like poverty and racism. 13. The TET Offensive in 1968 had a profound impact on public opinion in the United States, exposing the government's claims about military progress and contributing to growing anti-war sentiment. 14. President Nixon's bombing raids into Cambodia in 1969 were criticized for expanding the war beyond Vietnam's borders without Congressional approval, violating the Constitution's War Powers Clause. 15. The goal of Vietnamization was to gradually transfer responsibility for the war from the United States to the South Vietnamese military, but it ultimately failed to bring peace or stability. 16. At Kent State in 1970, National Guardsmen opened fire on student protesters, killing four and wounding nine, highlighting the divisions within American society over the Vietnam War. 17. Agent Orange's damages included birth defects and cancer, as well as long-term health consequences for those exposed to its toxic chemicals during the war. 18. The boat people, fleeing Vietnam between 1976-1980, sought refuge from the war's devastation and communist persecution, facing new challenges in foreign lands.